Homecoming and 175th Consecutive Communion!

“This is my body,
....broken
for you.”

“This is my blood,
...shed
for you.”

May 11, 2014

The Session & Congregation invite all members and friends of St. Pauls Presbyterian Church to COME HOME for Mother’s Day to experience a moving worship service at 11:00 a.m. and dinner on the grounds afterwards! We will have a bagpipe player for this special occasion.

In addition, we will be commissioning our first class of Stephen Ministers, Mrs. Edna Muse Owens and Mrs. Yvonne Shotwell Cooke. Our pastor, Rev. Susan Hudson, is already a trained Stephen Leader and the Session has voted to become a Stephen Ministry Congregation. To God be the glory!

Remembering the Saints...

On May 7th at 7:00 p.m., Rev. Sue Hudson and her husband, Rev. David Hudson, will lead us in joyfully remembering former pastors and long-time members of the church by revisiting milestones in our history. In addition we will take up a special offering in honor or in memory of people who have helped grow our faith. All gifts will be used for critical capital needs to improve our church facility & sustain our expanding ministries long into the future. If you have a story or anecdote you would like to share, let us know. Please celebrate with us!
